Obituary of Colleen Bly
Obituary Colleen S. Bly, 64 has gone to be with the Lord on the morning of September 18th, 2015. Colleen lived in Ocala, FL but was originally from Horseheads, NY. She was survived by her husband Charles I. Bly III, daughter Kelley Berger and husband Steve of Rome, PA, her son Brian Bly and wife Kimberly of Ocala, FL. Colleen had 4 Grandchildren, Brendyn 16, Kaitlyn 14, Hannah 8, and Stevie 4. Colleen had 2 surviving brothers, Robert Marmor with Roxanne Bammer of Whitehall, PA, and Kevin Marmor with wife Melissa of Bloomsburg, PA. Colleen was predeceased by her Mother Wilda Marmor, father Carl Marmor of Horseheads, NY and brother James Marmor of Kissimmee, FL. Colleen and Charles met over a candy bar and were married 37 years. She was a great wife, mother, sister, daughter and grandmother. She loved staying busy and most of all helping others. She adored her Grandchildren and cherished every moment spent with them. Colleen had a great career in the court system working in the field of family law. When she retired she was the Deputy Chief Court Clerk for Tompkins County. After retirement she could not sit still and became a realtor at Locey Realty of Horseheads, NY. In 2011 Colleen and Charles relocated to Florida to live out their retirement years. She loved her dogs Tina and Tommy and they were always right there by her side. Colleen loved to travel. She loved trips with her husband that mostly had no destination and loved going to Nascar races with her husband and grandkids. She traveled with her youngest brother Kevin and her father to Nashville, Tennessee where she loved to see the lights and enjoy the performances. Colleen and Charles helped manage Bucktail Camping Resort for many years with her parents and brother Robert. She recently traveled to Las Vegas with her husband and great friends Fred & Charlene Mcphee of Ocala. Colleen will mostly be remembered for her huge heart and dedication to family as well as her faith.

“ Colleen's love for her family was evident to anyone who knew her. She touched the lives of so many people in the course of her life. It was a shock to hear of her sudden passing and we send heartfelt condolences to her family. It is just another reminder to live each day to the fullest, keep your dear ones close and tell them you love them. I know she is looking down from Heaven and sending her love to her family and friends.

“ Dear Charlie, Kelley, Brian, Bob and Kevin, I am so sorry to hear about Colleen. I'm sure she will be dearly missed. I hope that all your wonderful memories will help you through this difficult time. I have many memories of her, and considered her not only a sister-in-law, but a friend. My thoughts and prayers are with your whole family, as well. I know she cherished her grandchildren and they were lucky to have her as their grandma. Mark and Linda Frame
