

Cynthia Renee Hunter

March 17, 1969 - December 19, 2025

Cynthia Renee Hunter, a beacon of faith and generosity, was called home on December 19, 2025. Born on March 17, 1969, in Miami, Florida, Cynthia's life was a testament to her unwavering Christian beliefs and her boundless love for her family.

Cynthia's journey began as a beloved daughter to Elaine Leno and the late Eugene Davis. She came from a large family and was the 4th oldest of a blended family of 11 children with her surviving siblings being Sharon Frazier (Greg), Tangela Leno Clark, Anna Tucker (Louis), Shonda Chisolm (Corey), Richard Tucker (Ebony), Latricia Roundtree (Daryl), Rotondoa Deveaux, and Curtis Hardy (Kimberly).

Cynthia's early years were spent in Miami until her family moved to Ocala when she was in 7th grade. After graduating from Forest High School in 1987, Cynthia dedicated her career to the nurturing and development of children within the childcare industry. Cynthia's work was more than a job; it was a calling that she fulfilled with grace and compassion.

Cynthia's faith was the cornerstone of her life. She was actively involved in her church, where she shepherded by Apostle Rozella Roberson (Kenneth). Cynthia's commitment to her faith was unwavering, often saying that her life revolved around "church, church, and more church." Her devotion to her faith was a source of strength and inspiration to her entire church family.

Cynthia found joy in simple pleasures. She loved to draw in her earlier years as well as poetry writing. Fishing was a favorite pastime also. Cynthia found solace and wisdom in the pages of her Bible. Cynthia's faith was a guiding force in her life. She was a devoted mom and wife who made it a priority to connect with her girls and her husband every morning for prayer, a tradition they've all participated in and promise to continue in her honor.

Cynthia's love for her family was immeasurable. She was a devoted wife to her husband, Joseph Hunter Sr. and a loving mother to her daughters Artisha Williams (Charles), Darreka Tolbert (Bryan), Sharella Davis, Monique Boyd, Cyntasia Boyd, Tyesha Gant, and Eboni Hunter. Her grandchildren Angel, Camryn, Azariah, Cay'Den, Ti'Yanna, and Dakota were the lights of her life, and she cherished every moment spent with them. Cynthia's love extended to her special nieces Elaine Tinson, Shamaria McCants and Madonna Lee, as well as her godchildren Kayla, Quiana, Daniel, Bryson, and Shataqua.

Described by those who knew her as generous, faith-filled, and selfless, Cynthia's legacy is one of love. She had a heart for feeding people, often opening her home to anyone in need of a meal or a kind word.

Cynthia's life was a beautiful tapestry of love, faith, and service. She was preceded in death by her brothers William Leno and Darnell Allen, her father Eugene Davis, her mother-in-Love Evangelist Mother Luise Hunter and her beloved fur baby, Ginger. Her memory will be cherished and kept alive by her mother, her husband, her children, her grandchildren, her siblings, and a host of relatives and friends who were blessed to know her.

As we bid farewell to Cynthia Renee Hunter, we celebrate a life well-lived, a race well run, and a faith well kept. Her spirit will continue to guide and comfort us until we meet again in the presence of our Lord.

“ I send my condolences to the family. Cynthia would always talk about the Lord and pray with me when I first got to know the family from being married to her brother at one time. I will keep the family in prayer. I was able to meet Ann as well in the early 2000's. Ms. Sandrilia Johnson
