“ I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't know the services were today otherwise I would have been there to show my respects. Daniel was a special person with a really funny side. I will always remember him doing cartwheels in the hallway. He had no fear and lived in the moment. We have to respect that. I will continue to keep you all in my prayers. There are no words when someone is taken so young. I pray for your comfort during this grieving process. I know he is now your personal angel. May he rest in peace.

“ Tiffany and the family So Sorry words cannot express all the sorrow you are feeling. Daniel was a very determined young man strong of heart, threw no punches told it like it is. I am so happy I could and did help him through his years at Belleview Elementary. He was a young man who loved and cared about others. A Blessing to all the lives he touched, I for one will miss him and Blessed to have had the opportunity to have had him in school to have guided him to have trusted him, and to have loved him as a student. R.I.P. Daniel My Brother Love and May the Lord Bless you and all those who love and miss you, Miss Sandy
