“ Dear Ms. Ream and Rose Marie, I am so sorry to learn of Darren's unexpected death. I considered Darren to be one of my best and dearest friends in high school. He was like a brother to me. As we graduated and began the next chapter in our lives, we lost track of each other. I missed him at reunions and always asked if anyone knew where he was. I remained hopeful we would meet again someday. I am sorry for your loss. He truly was a special person. God has another angel in heaven. Shelly Lasek Valentino

“ I never met someone who had such a gift for turning strangers into friends after a single conversation. Darren will surely be missed by many for a long time to come. I would say let his soul rest in peace but knowing Darren he has God laughing and rolling-around up there.
