“ I lost touch with David and Joyce, but they were two of the nicest people I had ever met. Myself and my husband bought their property in Polk City. Joyce knew everything about plants and so knowledgeable about the land and David was sweet as could be so caring. I still have two hanging lamps he made from an airplane part. They used to visit every six weeks when David and Joyce would get a hair cut. I miss those two their presence is still felt here in the home and the land. I see things they worked on and think about them often. Condolences to the family.
