“ I miss you terribly bro...your son was visiting with us again this weekend and during his favorite meal of steak, potatoes and corn (no surprise) we talked about you. I told a few stories of when we were kids and how you taunted Dad into "really" hitting the baseball back to us instead of just some routine grounders and he proceeded to hit a line drive right back to the pitchers mound which you caught with your face and Dad had to carry you 3 blocks home to get ice and stop the bleeding. I told the story of how we use to love to sled down our street and you always wanted to go faster and push others out of the way. I told the story of the matches we played with and how we almost lit the neighbors house on fire and that when we lied to Dad about what we did...there was no "almost" when he beat our butts. Sharon says she misses your voice saying "Hey Sis" and your big hugs and big entrances. The kids talked about your "kewlness", your sloppy kisses and your big smile. Ty fondly remembers the knuckle sandwich you always promised. Mom misses your love! God still sends messages for you - I could smell you yesterday when we played bothie ball with Ty. And this morning - I heard you and Dads song again on the radio ...Let me tell you a secret, about a Father's Love, a secret that my daddy said was just between us, you see daddys don't just love their children every now and then.....its a love without end, Amen!

“ i remember wrestling against dave & troy & dreading being pitted against either; early, troy being so tall, long and lanky, it was impossible to manage him-dave was an excellent wrestler, and for me to manage avoiding getting pinned was an accomplishment for me. i always looked-up to them both. my heart goes out to his family and friends, this just seems so unfair

“ Dave, I so remember how much fun you were to be around. I remember at Grandma's 80th birthday how you and Bobby got up to sing her a song. She pretended to be embarrassed, but we all know she loved it. It was always such a joy to watch how much fun you and the cousins had when you were all together. Even though we didn't get together that much after you moved from Omaha, when you kids saw each other again, you just picked up like you were never apart and had such a great time. We had such a good time in Florida when all of you came up, and Lord knows, that your parents and us were glad we had our own place to stay! Couldn't hang with you youngsters. I will cherish those memories, and yes, I do forgive you for calling me "Pollack" so much. I know that was "Terms of Endearment". You will always hold a special place in my heart and I will miss your laughter. Till we meet again, Love, Aunt Alvina

“ Dave, I don't know where to begin. There are so many memories and times with you, I will never forget. The thought of never hearing your voice again or feeling your great big bear hugs, is what hurts the most. I do, however, find comfort in knowing that the memories will be in my heart forever, and THAT can never be taken away. I cherish so much, but the last couple of times we were together, is what I remember most. Like Troy had mentioned, after grandma's funeral, later in the evening, all of us cousin had gotten together, sat around a table, and played LCR. We laughed so hard our stomachs hurt, and you had to hold your cheeks. We played cards until after midnight, reminising and catching up. Great times, great times. We were also fortunate enough to travel with the whole family to Florida for vacation last Spring. I remember all of your family coming up, and spending the day. It was a blast! You throwing up Ty and the kids in the water, playing pool games with them, and later chilling out with us cousins by the poolside. The talks, the laughter, your smile, your love, THAT... I will never forget. I love you so much, and will miss you terribly. Our view stops where earth meets the sky, but both stretch on and on, we cannot see our loved ones, still, we know they are not gone.

“ Dave, I just dont know what to say... I'll miss you terribly. Where do I begin with the memories? I think we've played golf together more than two friends could. From our wonderful trip to The Masters in Augusta, GA to the Ritz Carlton at Amelia Island to Orange County National in Orlando. All the T&D Golf League's you volunteered to help me for five years. We've been through ups and downs together and I just can't come to the realization that this has happened. I know you wouldn't want me to cry but tough I am. From all of us at T&D Golf we miss you and will never forget you. To your family, I('m so sorry, If there's anything I can do for Ty please never hesitate to ask

“ In a recent trip to our Grandmothers funeral, a group of his cousins gathered with spouses and children and celebrated life the way we knew would honor our Grandmothers spirit. We laughed, we shared love, and we had fun. And that night, surrounded with family, Dave was Dave, anyone in that room would tell you the same thing, that night he was classic Dave. He was lucky, he was happy, he was funny....we laughed so much that night, our stomachs and faces actually did hurt. That night, David loved and was loved like he was the conductor and we were his symphony, yea, that night he was classic Dave. And many of you have your own personal classic Dave moments as well. Hang on to those moments, life is about moments and Dave gave us great moments. Sometimes we know not what we do, forgive us Lord. Sometimes we hurt those we would not harm, forgive us Lord. Sometimes we forget your greatest commandment is love, forgive us Lord. Sometimes we forget that our loss is your gain, forgive us Lord. Go in peace my brother, I shall never forget you. Amen

I too remember the day we all got together for Grandma's funeral and we did have lots of laughs and fun moments with David. That is the David that I am going to remember when I think of him.
