“ It's always a sad day when someone you knew and loved passes. Dawn and I had eloped to Murphy, North Carolina in July of 1970 to get married in the only state that we were old enough. She was 16 and I was 18. We lived a life of carefree good times for quite awhile and brought Mickie Jean into this world. We parted ways eventually and I am glad that Dawn was able to go on and have such a bountiful life in Ocala and to be part of and surrounded by such a loving and giving family. She was a very lucky woman to have that. She will be missed by a lot of people
