“ Dear Cathy and Timmy, Losing your Mother is a very hard thing...but the memories that you shared will live on forever. When you see something or hear a song that remembers you of her.. know that is her way of letting you know she is with you. A Mother's love last forever. May the thought of her love for you get you through these difficult times. We are here if you need us. Love Aunt Reggie and Carmine

“ Cathy and Lindsey, Although I didn't know your Mom, I am sure she loved and valued her family; especially her daughter. That is evident by your many acts of devotion to her. In order to learn how to love, you must first be loved. You both must have loved each other dearly. Remember she is in a better place now. She had the joy of getting to know Grand-daughter,Lindsay and then her Great-Grand-daughter; Alicia. I am sure they both brought her may proud and joyous times. In your time of sorrow try and remember all the good times you had with your Mom and know that in good time you will see her again. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all. Love Kathy and Ron

“ Dear Cathy, May your memories comfort you in these difficult times. What touches you is the joy that your Mom brought, what comforts you are the memories that you shared, what last... is love. Although your Mom is not with you physically she will always live on in your heart. May you cherish the memories and find comfort in knowing that you are a wonderful daughter who gave your Mom so much; especially Lindsay and Alicia. Our prayers are with you. Maureen and Tim

“ Cathy: I don't know what to say except that I know you will miss your Mother, no one is so greatly missed like a Mom. You're going through a difficult time right now, but in the future you will be able to remember all the good times you shared with her. Not with the heavy heart of today but with a smile. Your memories will get you through this and in time those memories will be something that you cherish and hold dear. You are in my prayers. I am here for you.

“ Dear Cathy and Lindsay, Please know how very sorry we are to hear of the loss of your mom. Your acts of devotion and care for her were amazing and a great example to us all. Cathy, you were everything that a daughter could be for a mother and I am sure that your mother was equally the same for you. Please know that we are here for all of you. We are each of us like angels with only one wing, and can only fly embracing each other. Your entire family will be in our thoughts and prayers.
