“ Dear Farr family, I am very sorry for your loss. A scripture that encouraged me very much when I have lost loved ones in death is John 5:28,29 it says "Do not be amazed at this for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." We can have confidence in all the Bible's promises.

“ Worthy, Courtney & Family, I never thought that I would find myself having to write this, even when I was made aware of the cancer. Your wife, your mother, your grandma, our Debbie was tough. She was a warrior in every sense of the word, and in every way that Chad was. She was funny. She was kind, and she was loving. Her family and friends were her entire world, and anyone that had the pleasure of knowing her could immediately tell that. She was special to me, as are each of you. As horrific as losing Chad was all those years ago, I know that God used that tragedy to bring Debbie and your entire family into mine. She will be missed and our time together will be cherished. This earth has lost one of the greatest examples of a mother, that there has ever been. I am sorry for your loss. She is not in pain anymore, and she will never be forgotten by those of us that knew and loved her.
