Her infectious laughter lit up any room. She was very kind and caring and would love to talk about her love for God , her children Jermaine and Nickadian as well as her grandchildren. She will be sadly missed but although gone to sleep held unto that blessed hope of being changed from mortal to immortality when the death in Christ shall arise. RIP Maureen we love you but the Lord loves you more. My deepest condolences to her children and family at this this

Mother's never really leave us. Their memories are always with us and we hope that gives you some small comfort during this difficult time. My grand niece has a love for God and I will always remember that about her. I prayerfully put her children and grandchildren in the arms of God. He will always take care of you, that's what He does, because He is God all by Himself. We love you and will be praying for you always. All our deepest sympathy goes out to you at this time. Gone too soon.
