Our Family was not expecting for Devon's life to be cut so short, so sudden. Devon had a forgiving heart and gentle soul. He cherished his family and built strong friendships. He was always smiling and having a good time. He was free spirited and ready to take on world! Devon was a beautiful baby and a handsome young man. Forever a Momma's Boy and Dad's Buddy. He was the best Big Brother to his younger sisters who look up to and adore him. Devon always showed compassion for others. In his final act of love Devon was able to donate his organs. The Legacy of Our son, and all he would have been will continue as he lives on in others.

Devon's parents have started a Legacy Page (DevonJacobsons Legacy) to allow others to witness his ongoing journey. Please join his family to spread awareness about Organ Donation, the gift of life.
