“ Mom, you are missed so much.. Everyday i think of you and it makes me sad, when the kids do something new or still ask for you that you aint here to see it or hear it. i know you are watching over us.. you have always said you would, but not having you hear is so hard... I miss talking to you everyday and hearing your voice, eating your food, coming over to see you..I miss looking at my phone and seeing mom home, or mom cell and seeing your picture pop up... I miss everything about you and that comes with knowing you.. There are so many memories of you I have in my head and I share it all the time with all the kids... Your grandchildren miss you and ask for you all the time, the only thing I tell them is grandma is watching from heaven she sees all you do and will always be watching over you.. I miss hugging and kissing you, walking threw your bedroom door and jumping in bed with you, talking to you and watching tv with you...I miss you yelling at me.. you were taken from us way too soon and no holiday or oridinary day is the same without you hear... But one day we will all be together again and until that day.. The love and memory will always stay alive within all of us..I still talk to you, just out loud now and I hope you hear me everyday telling you how much I love and miss you...
