“Dad you were the patriarch of a wonderful and loving family. You will be greatly missed, as you were greatly loved by all of us that had the pleasure to have known you. Even though your leaving has created a void, I am thankful that You are no longer suffering. We will all see you again some day. Thank you for welcoming me always into your family. Love Forever and Always, Norma

“Dear Ann and family, Please know that you are all in our prayers at this time. Don was quite the helper for us when we were all camping in CT in the early 1980's. Who else would have done what he did. We all have great memories of those years, and the years to follow with our family and yours. Love to all, Art & Diana
