“My Mother was the greatest Mother ever. She told me many times, all she ever wanted to be was a Mother, and she excelled in it. She had cookies just out of the oven for me when I came home from school. She was always there for any school event or after a bad day. We really connected when she drove me to Boston to go to school. She'd never driven that far alone and we missed the turnoff in DC and got lost in town, then we didn't know Labor Day week-end on Cape Cod was the worst day to be there. We were stuck behind traffic for 6 hours, but we laughed all the time and it started are very close and loving relationship that continued our whole lives. We shopped together, had our own little book club, went to movies and generally just enjoyed each other's company. I'll love you for ever, Mother.

“Please accept my heartfelt condolences to your family. 1 Corinthians 15:25, 26 says "For he [Jesus] must rule as king until God has put all enemies under his feet. And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing". At Revelation 21:4 it says regarding Jehovah, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Finally, take courage in the hope of the resurrection promised at Acts 24:15 "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."
