

Dorothea Yost

December 31, 1969 - November 6, 2014

Obituary of Dorothea Yost Dorothea Ensko Wyle Yost, known to all as "Dee", passed away in her sleep at her home in Ocala on November 6. Dee will be greatly missed by all who knew her, most especially by her loving husband of twenty two years, James L Yost, her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Dee was born in New York City, where her family ran an antique and reproduction silver business that had been established by her grandfather. Dee attended National Cathedral School in Washington DC and graduated from Wheaton College in Norton MA, where she was instrumental in establishing a synchronized swimming team that remains active today. Wed to Vernon C. Wyle in 1944, Dee and Vern raised three sons in Greenwich CT, where Dee also taught school for 20 years. She and Vern later moved to Kerrville TX, where he passed away in 1986. Dee married James in Kerrville in May 1992. They eventually moved to Shelbyville TN, then to Ocala. Dee was predeceased by her brother Stephen, her first husband, Vern, their second son Terence and Dee's sister Alice. She is survived by James, her children Stephen, Bruce, Chris and their spouses, 7 grandchildren and two great grandchildren, James' children Stephen and James and their spouses, 8 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren. Dee will be interred in Greenwich, CT at a future date. Messages of condolence may be left for the family at www.robertsfunderalhomes.com. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Dee's memory to the American Cancer Society.
