“ Many, many years have passed since I met her, but I remember her as a kind woman. My mother, Doris Richards, spoke quite well of her and related stories of her and her siblings to me when I was young. Also loved to hear my grandmother, Eula Hosey Richards relate stories of her youth and her siblings....life was hard, but it was apparent that they took care of each other when it mattered. Would also like to say hi to Loren, Mae and Jenny....many fond memories of all of you when I was young. Hope life finds you well and very sorry for your loss. Rick Lanzo
