“ Dwayne was a smart, caring, funny, and handsome man. We met when he was in the Army, 25, still just a kid and so much potential. He should have grown old, married, and raised children, not pass away so young. This World is so much Less colorful without his presence. He is missed by all who had the pleasure to get to know him.

“ We are praying that you will feel God's love and presence in a way you have never experienced; for I imagine that it is only in His strength that you will find a way to get through this painful time of losing your son....He understands, for He lost His son too. May you feel his loving arms around you.

“ Dwayne was a student I will never forget. We clashed at first, but became friends over time. I am proud to have known him, to know he served his country, but most of all, I am proud he served his Lord.
