

Eamonn O'Connor

June 25, 1937 - April 12, 2023

Eamonn Ronan "Eddie" O'Connor, 85, of Ocala, FL, passed peacefully on April 12, 2023.

Eddie was born in Roscommon, Ireland to Malachi and Vera on June 25, 1937. He immigrated.

to the United States in 1957 and joined the Army in May of 1958 where he received an honorable discharged in 1964.

After the Army he met his wife Mary and started a family.

He continued public service as a police officer in the Bronx for 15 years.

During his time on the force, he earned a degree in Criminology from New York Institute of Technology. Retiring from the Police Department in 1980, he started O'Connor's Carpet Center, a very successful flooring business that is still thriving today. Eddie loved time with his family more than all else, whether at family gatherings for holidays, family vacations or just Sunday dinner, it was what made him truly happy.

Eddie is survived by his wife Mary, four sons Brendan, Danny, Sean and Keith his daughter Kelly, and his 10 grandchildren Andrea, Aiden, Shane, Matt, Gavin, Shannon, Molly,

Simon, Jackson and Christopher.

There will be a viewing Monday 4/17/23 from 4 to 7 at Robert's Funeral home at 606 SW 2nd

Ave, Ocala FL. Funeral will be held at St. Theresa's Catholic Church located at 11528 US 301

Belleview, Fl at 10a.m Tuesday morning. Final resting place will be at Highland Memorial Park

located at 1515 NE 3rd St, Ocala, FL.

Eddie was full of life and the definition of the American Dream. He came to the US with nothing in his pocket, he served his country, served his community, fell in love and had a family that loved him. He had business success and gave back to the community. He will be missed by everyone who ever knew him.
