“ To my grandfather, Papa, I never really knew you in my later years. But what I did know of you from my father, your son Kevin A. Haj. You, like him, did what you could for your family and the people around you. Being a police officer brighten his eyes and later influenced him. Through my father I learned what type of person you were from the type of man he beacome. So in a way from you, to him, now is part of me. The bond of the Hajs' continues. Thank you.

“ I have lived with Papa these last few years and visited him all my life. He was a great inspiration to me and motivated me all of my life to work hard and be smart about everything I do. I know he treated me like a son and I know he treated his sons like me. He did nothing but look out for everyone else and make sure everyone around him was always happy. I cant say enough how much I miss him already but I know he is watching over Mimi and I and I am going to follow through with our deal and be here for her like they were for me. I'll always love you Papa and thank you for everything!
