Eileen Florence Sostilio, age 85, of Ocala, Florida, beloved wife of the late Nicholas Sostilio, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 2, 2025.

Eileen was born on July 7, 1940, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late Frank O'Hanlon and Mary (Yese) O'Hanlon. She and her husband Nick resided in the tri-state area—New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut—before retiring to Florida in 2002.

She had a deep love for travel, especially cruises, enjoyed boating on Long Island Sound, and was a passionate cook known for feeding anyone and everyone with her exceptional culinary skills.

Eileen is survived by her children, Nick (Gail) Sostilio and Anthony (Anna) Sostilio; and her cherished grandchildren, Nicholas, Samantha, Kaylee, and Aimee. She is also survived by her sister Debbie Compton and brother Jack O'Hanlon; numerous nieces and nephews; and her beloved dog, Rocky.

A special thank you to her neighbors Sean Appleby and Gaytor Daniels for their support and love of Eileen—your kindness and friendship meant the world to her and to our family.
