

Elba Ayala

December 7, 1947 - February 12, 2021

It is with great sadness to announce the passing of Elba Ayala. Elba passed away peacefully on February 12, 2021. Elba is survived by a loving husband Rafael Figueroa, married for 31 years and her two children Miguel and Daisy. Elba was a dedicated and devoted wife, mother. She was lovable, cheerful and was always happy person. Elba was known for her practical jokes. She loved to help the community especially the elders. She was also a foster parent, she believed in helping and giving love to those children that were without a parent. And the ones that were taken away from their parents. She leaves behind a wonderful, joyful memories. Elba we will truly miss you and always will be in our hearts. Please joins us to celebrating her life on Friday 19, 2021 between 5 to 8pm and Saturday 10am to 11 am following by prayers service at 11 am. After service please join us at the cemetery for last goodbye.

Tribute Wall

“ It took me many years to find something of her online. She was my foster mother 24yrs ago. I never forgot her. Wish I would've spoken to her before this. :(

---

Jacqueline Jones - March 18, 2021 at 12:00 AM