“ Sweet, beautiful, humble and intriguing Elizabeth. I spoke of her as Ms. Glitzy; always wearing glitzy jewelry, clothing, shoes, and carrying sparkling purses. And it always suited her well! I never heard her say a bad thing about anyone, a true Christian lady. She has endured the darkness in life and fought with her shield of faith to her eternal heavenly home. God bless all her family and friends, she will be missed. (Love, Barbara Poplin) | Elizabeth, my oldest 1st Cousin and with this leading commitment to fulfill, performed utmost in her presentation of life and love for all and has fulfilled her commitment to God, Family and Friends.
