“ Hi Mom, Hard to believe tomorrow will be 6 years. It's gone fast but your memory has always been with the family. We're all doing good here and know you are in good hands there. We'll all celebrate your life tomorrow because you are still alive in our hearts and minds. Hi to you and all your friends above and hoping you are looking down with pride. Love, Bill

“ Hi Mom, Tomorrow would be another special day for you (90 years). I know you will be thinking of all of us tomorrow, as will we all be thinking of you. I miss the lunches and the discussions we had the last few years, but will carry on your wishes and thoughts the best I can. Have a Happy Birthday tomorrow and wish all your friends up there the best from down here. Love, Bill
