“ My condolences to the family. Elmer was, by many people's assessment, the most affable person ever met. He knew no strangers. Elmer, save us some seats. We'll all meet on That Day.

“ Our deepest and sincerest condolences to you all, especially for Georgia, who has lost not only her husband, but a friend as well. As for us, we've lost one of our closest friends in the distance, but he will not be forgotten. Rest in peace my dear brother, you have parted on the square, but we shall meet on the level. “ I really enjoyed your company and knowing you all my life, thanks for all that you did for us as a family and the service of our country. Thanks for being part of the Moroccco Shriners and helping me find my way to all the Masonic Life. Now youve gone to Jeepster heaven and I know you will meet up with Chip and enjoy the spiritual life. You were loved, now missed, but never forgotten Bro !
