

Elva Brewer

November 20, 1929 - October 21, 2011

Obituary of Elva Brewer Mrs. Elva K. Brewer, 81, of Ocala, and formerly of Lauderhill, FL left us for Heaven on Friday, October 21, 2011. Mrs. Brewer was born in Allagash, Maine on November 20, 1929, daughter of Lanson and Lucy Kelly. She was predeceased by her husband, Fred S. Brewer, in 1968 and brothers, Lowell, William, and Hollis Kelly of New Milford, CT. Fred was a native of Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, Canada. She is survived by son, Kerry L. Brewer, daughter-in-law, Donna, and granddaughter, Skye, of Lauderhill, FL; son, Loren Brewer, daughter-in-law, Cathi Ann and granddaughters, Samantha and Melissa of Ocala, FL; One sister, Sarah (Mrs. Conley) Simmons of Friendship, ME; several nephews and nieces and many cousins. Elva attended elementary school in Allagash and spent four years at MTS, the teacher training school in Fort Kent, ME. She graduated from New Brunswick Bible Institute in New Brunswick, Canada, as did her husband, Fred. Fred and Elva were married in Allagash. They served in pastoral work in Maine and Connecticut and as short term missionaries in Newfoundland, Canada. Later they became members of Church of the Bible in Plainville, CT where they served many years in various capacities. After moving to Florida in later years, Elva became a member of Plantation Baptist Church where she served as a teacher of the senior ladies in the Sunday School department. She enjoyed teaching and in that "calling" she acquired many dear friends. The family had private family services. Arrangements are under the care of Roberts Funeral Homes Bruce Chapel West. 352-854-2266

Tribute Wall

“ Another tie to the history of our family is gone. I will miss Elva. ”

Darrell McBreairty - October 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM