“ I will always remember how kind hearted Shorty was to me and how whenever I visited we would share bread. (Always Cuban bread never Italian bread, shorty didn't like Italian bread). Miss her big heart, I know she is at rest. RIP Shorty.

“ My beloved Mother in law. Wow where do I start?... 32 years of memories between us. We've been through all the feels. You were soo funny and firm when needed. I miss the morning calls so much. I'm so grateful for all that you have taught me throughout the years but mostly I am proud of the way you showed me how to take care of your son as you would have. I also am grateful for the cooking lessons I was a young 21 when we started and I learned and I've been using those skills for many years now with the same apron she gave me 30 years ago! Haha! I will think of you often and miss you always! Love your daughter in law.
