

Erika Roman

December 31, 1969 - May 1, 2009

Obituary of Erika Roman FORT PIERCE, Fla. (WOFL FOX 35) - Orlando radio personality Erika Roman, of Power 95.3 , has died following a single-car accident. The Florida Highway Patrol reports that Roman was driving southbound on Florida's Turnpike when the wreck occurred. It happened around 1:30 p.m. about 20 miles south of YeeHaw Junction at mile marker 171 in the Fort Pierce area. Erika was taken to Lawnwood Regional Medical Center in Fort Pierce where she later died. Known to many of her fans as, "Your Chula," Roman joined WPYO FM in 2006 as their first Latina on-air radio personality. The 33-year-old resident of Winter Park was a producer and co-host of the Lil' Shawn and Obie Morning Show. Born and raised in New York City, Erika began her career as a promoter for Fever Records while attending Marymount Manhattan College in New York, where she eventually attained a BA in Communications and Media. "Erika was a wonderful, passionate person and she will be missed greatly by all of her friends and family. We know that she touched the lives of many." Funeral arrangements are under the care of ROBERTS FUNERAL HOMES DOWNTOWN CHAPEL. 352-622-4141.

Tribute Wall

“ Takisha lit a candle in memory of Erika Roman ”

Takisha - September 22, 2025 at 04:37 PM

“ Erika Roman ”

June 20, 2014 at 12:00 AM