

Erma Mahoney

August 3, 1935 - June 17, 2018

Erma L. Mahoney, 82, died Sunday, June 17, 2018 at her home in Ocala, FL. She is survived by her daughters, Donna Mahoney and Vickie Ford and her husband, Michael, and her granddaughter Natalie Russell and her husband, Bradley.

Born in Louisville, KY on August 3, 1935, she was the daughter of Roy E. Price and Henrietta Blackburn Price. She was a life long resident of Louisville, KY until 2007 when she moved to Ocala, FL.

On March 6, 1954 Erma married her high school sweetheart Earl and they remained married for 63 years until Earls death last year.

Erma graduated from Manuel High School in Louisville, KY. She enjoyed a working career as a bank teller for many years. She was an avid bowler and card player, passionate about animals and their welfare, and had a special love for cats. She took pride in being called the crazy cat lady. Her greatest joy and love was her family, without a doubt.
