“ Esther AKA my second mom. was one of the best neighbors I've ever had. I have lived across the street from her for over 27 years. We have laughed together, cried together and have gone to places together. She is always had an open arm for me. If I ever needed to hear a great laugh. I would always walk over and see her. I just wish I would have spent more time with her. Life often got in my way. There was never a time that we were sitting and talking that she did not laugh often at all kinds of things. Which, I know at times she probably thought I was crazy. But, in some crazy kind of way. I like to get risky and crazy in our conversations just to make her laugh. She was always there for me even if for the simplest things of receiving a package if I was not home. She would always call me and let me know that it arrived. She has always kept a close eye on me from across the street. I would always tell her that she was the best security system anybody could have. Now, I have had to rely on my ring doorbell. Which doesn't work all the time. But, Esther she always worked she worked well. Lol. Esther I love you and you will be so greatly miss. I feel lost looking over there and knowing that you're not physically here with us anymore. Please be my guardian angel in heaven. As you were my angel here on earth. Rest in peace and thank you for paving the way and getting things ready for me. When it is my time to spend eternal life with you again.
