December 31, 1969 - April 26, 2012

Obituary of Esther Rivera
Esther Rivera A woman who showed all of us that nothing can hold you down. She was a great teacher and an amazing woman to all. A loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, daughter, aunt, and friend. This woman had a personality that no one could ever forget. Her sternness taught us to be strong and courageous. She was the backbone to her family, and extended herself to others who were in need. Tough love would have been her motto, but yet had a heart no other could carry. This woman took on the world and concord it. She's earned the wings she now has been blessed with by walking this earth as a child of God. As she looks down on us all, I know she will be proud of the bit of strength she has left in each one of us. Esther may not be here in physical form, but is always present in our hearts. So as we sit back to remember her, lets not cry in sorrow, but in joy to know that the Lord blessed us all with such an amazing woman and now Angel.

“ I am sorry the family and this earth lost and wonderful lady. I remember her generous nature to all the teens in the neighborhood when I was a teen. She always had a welcoming home her tough love and warm heart can only be admired, loved and repected. My prayers go out to the family and my dear friend Karen.

“ The Lord has blessed me with such an amazing Mother. She has given me the greatest love that a mother can give her child which is unconditional love. I will miss her unconditionally. My heart is in pieces and will take a very long time to mead. I lost my best, best friend. I do know that she is with Jesus and no more suffering. I also know that God said all that love me and believe in me will have eternal life and I know she has been given all that's been promise to her from God. Love you Mom and I will be with you one day and our beloved Jesus Christ and Father Almighty.
