“ Jesse's family: Please accept my most sincere sympathy. I so very much enjoyed working with her in Homemaker's Club in the Forest! She was committed to the work of the organization and to the Ag Center. She could make jelly out of anything. Yes, she certainly was a character but I always lovingly referred to her as my pioneer friend. From logging camp owner, cook, surgeon, farmer, gardener in Michigan to the forest community always made visits at her home very interesting. She in so many ways reminded me of my West Virginia relatives when I was a young girl. She kept clean newsprint on her kitchen table as the tablecloth. She was clever, industrious, and a worker bee! She made hundreds of adult bibs, lap quilts and twin bed quilts and donated them all to people in need. I never visited her after she went to the nursing home but when I passed Marion Landing I would think about Jesse and the dirty jokes and tales she could spin and if she found willing ears for listening. She is fondly remembered by me.
