

Evelyn Smusz

December 31, 1969 - February 19, 2014

Obituary of Evelyn Smusz Evelyn Smusz, a kind and dutiful Daughter, a responsible big Sister, a loving Wife and Mother, a happy Aunt and Grandmother, with a warm and generous spirit toward her neighbors, friends and clients of Senior Companions. Evelyn was a devout Catholic and shared her religion more by her actions than her words. Evelyn was always on the go...and if you were going her way, you needed to be on the go too. Full of fun and a wonderful curiosity for adventure, she was her joyous self, and if you were lucky enough to have spent any time with Evelyn you already knew that. What did Evelyn do to relax...she made Rosary's for Blessed Trinity with her companions each Wednesday Morning along with a cake she would bake when she woke up. Her knitting and needlepoint, and her painting of home, New Bedford Massachusetts, spoke of who she was. Evelyn was a talented fun loving woman. Being from New Bedford, Evelyn loved the Ocean...here in Florida she was a regular at Ormond Beach, when she could get away. Walking along the sand looking for sea glass, shells, and watching the seabirds brought her such delight. The crash and spray of the Ocean as the waves fell into the beach was by far her favorite sound. There is no end to the wonderful memories she has left in our care, we are better people for having known her, and we shall miss her every day. As Evelyn would say, God Bless you...in Jesus name we pray. Please feel free to leave a memory or sentiment on the message portion of this web site.

“ Had not heard of Evelyn's passing til today. I am so sorry. I didn't know Evelyn very well, but knew she was a kind and loving person. So sorry for your loss. I will miss her. My deepest sympathy, Gerry

“ It still just doesn't seem real. We went through all your things today and I kept expecting you to yell at us to get out of your things....or tell us how nosy we are. You were such a light of sunshine....always put a smile on everyone's face, even when you were sick. I broke down in your apartment today because I realized that all those weekends we spent together are really gone.....I feel so guilty in the aftermath of your death because I knew I failed you. I know I never made enough time for you, always citing I would tomorrow. Unfortunately tomorrow never came. What's worse is I know you forgive me, and I don't deserve it. I just hope you know how much I do love you, how much you did mean to me. I hope you know how you will forever live in my heart. Not a day has passed i don't think of you. Rest in peace my beautiful guardian angel.

“ To the Family and Friends of Evelyn Smusz, Evelyn was a great friend and neighbor. We shared many wonderful times together. She faced many obstacles in her life, but faced them with grace and dignity. She was giving of herself to help others. May God watch over her. With love, Calvin Wwnne and family
