“ As a newly wed couple, we met Faye and Roy in 1962 when we became neighbors in Paris, Kentucky. This friendship has been uninterrupted despite the distance of miles. We've treasured the memories of weekends at Lake Cumberland, sharing picnics on Roys pontoon boat, lobster dinners on a vacation in Maine, Faye and I struggling thru the crowds at Disney Land while the parade threatened to sweep Jennifer away. Watching the skinny little boys, Douglas and Bruce, grow into honorable men, and the practical jokes that Faye and I played on the hapless police in Paris, Ky. when we shared an office building, Faye in Civil Defense and me as a confused Child Welfare Worker. Friendships like this are blessings that ease us thru the hardships of life. We truly loved Faye, and grieve her loss, while we rejoice in the gift of knowing her. We pray that Roy and family can find comfort in their own treasured memories of life with this amazing woman . love from Jenny and Alan
