

Faye Magee

January 30, 1920 - October 12, 2015

Obituary of Faye Magee Faye (Rose) Magee passed away with family members nearby on October 12, 2015. Faye was born Hattie Louise Rose on January 30, 1920 in Huntington, Arkansas, to Joseph Edward Rose and Sylvia Luella (McKown) Rose. Faye married Joe Wilton Magee, Sr. in 1945 and, together, they raised three children (Martha Rose Magee Royalty, Joe Wilton Magee, Jr. and Michael David Magee). For more than forty years, the family residence was in north Jackson, MS, where Faye did accounting for Joe Sr.'s law practice. Faye is survived by sons, Joe Jr. (Roxann) and Michael (Susan), as well as her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Faye's passions included music, daily bible readings, books and her extended family. In addition, Faye was a wonderfully skilled organist, who frequently played for family and friends. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a contribution to meals on wheels, a local food bank, a local animal shelter or other charity of one's choosing. Following a brief service, Faye is to be given rest next to Joe Sr. at Lakewood Memorial Park (Jackson, MS).
