“ one of the first things Mark and I did on our honeymoon was to visit Aunt Florence and Uncle Chet, the perennial honeymooners. My mom, Diane, lost her ability to track phone calling and correspondence in her fifties due to ALZ. Well into her sixties she was still telling me about her "recent" phone conversations with Florence. Aunt Florence holds a current place in our hearts

“ I just received the news this morning and while sad, it gave me the opportunity to reflect on how truly special the Braun/Decker family is. We surly have had our share of great times. The older I get and the more people I meet, it has become obvious how blessed our families have been. Thinking of you all, Bill Bonefas
