“ Dear Shelly, When we think of Frank...

We think of you, Tracy, Mel, Danielle, David, and Riley. Frank was always the family man. He beamed with pride at the mere mention of one of your names.

We think of your sweet routines back in the day: birthday parties at your home where everyone was always invited, your Friday night date nights, and window shopping.

We think of the man who welcomed with open arms your sister and mom home.

We think of the best-smelling, best-dressed, most handsome silver-haired fox ever to manage a transmission shop.

We think of a man who adored his "beautiful" daughter, Tracy (Tracy, you were undoubtedly the shining jewel in your dad's crown and his beautiful ongoing legacy).

May God bless and strengthen all of you, knowing that Frank and Keith are reunited, watching over you. We are so deeply sorry for your loss.

Love Always, Bill and Jean
