

Frank Mannino

May 4, 1941 - February 21, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the peaceful passing of Frank Mannino. He was born in Carini Italy to Marco Antonio Mannino and Laura Gambino. He settled in Brooklyn, NY in his early teens. He went on to become the business owner of Ridge Delko in Bay Ridge for many years. Along the way he forged lifelong friendships with everyone who came into his life. He was very hospitable and welcoming with friends and family and was loved and respected by all. He was the devoted husband to Gladys Medina, brother to Connie Giordano and also the late Joe Mannino. He is survived by his children, grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and in-laws. Retirement brought Frank to Florida and he also lived in Puerto Rico. He loved Puerto Rico and wished to have his remains buried on the island he fell in love with.

“ *Though his smile is gone forever and his hand I cannot touch I still have so many memories of frank.
God has him in keeping and I have him in my Heart. Sadly missed but never forgotten

“ We are so saddened by Frank's passing. He had such a lively, kind, and generous spirit. We met when we moved into the neighborhood, and in typical friendly Brooklyn Italian fashion, he came right to our front door, knocked, and asked to come in! From that day on, Frank and Gladys became so dear to us, and I will always have fond memories of Frank's generous and persistent offers of sangria anytime we visited. We will miss him!

“ Frank was a great friend and neighbor to us when we both lived in Staten Island. My husband, Frank, could have not picked a better person to be next too. Gladys is a beautiful person as well and we had many good times together. We were saddened to hear of his loss. May he Rest In Peace. We are glad that his resting place will be the island that he loved, Puerto Rico. Our deepest sympathy to Gladys and their Family. 🙏🙏
