“ Frank, I was so Blessed to have met you. I know that you are now in GODS Loving Hands. My Heart and Prayers go out to all of Frank's Loved one's, especially his loving Daughter Ada. Little-One (Ada), The greatest comfort we have in the time of loss is in knowing that death does not have the last word---- Jesus does! And his word declares, "I am the Resurrection and the Life...Whoever lives and believes in Me will never die." I Love You as my own. Momma (Patsy)

“ I met Frank at Am-Vet up in Citra with my brother Richard. Frank had so much enthusiasm and for a man of 70 years he had so much life and new beginnings ahead of him. His passing is a terrible loss to those that knew and loved him and those of us who looked forward to a future with so much promise. He will be missed.
