“ I am deeply saddened by the passing of a most favorite uncle of myself and my family; however, I am more saddened by the fact that his family did nothing to notify other family members who loved him and whom he loved dearly. Regardless of any situation, family is family and nothing will ever change that. Unfortunately, in life we don't get 'do-overs' so it is important to do the right thing for all, always. I can only hope...
