

Frederick David Lavigne

October 26, 1950 - December 24, 2021

Frederick (Rick) David Lavigne, 71, of Inverness Florida passed away unexpectedly on December 24th 2021. Rick passed from this world to the next, just 6 days after walking his only daughter down the aisle on her wedding day.

Born to Paul Albert Lavigne and Mary Jane DeCosta (Mercier)

Rick spent the first 30 years of his life in Bermuda, where he worked in the hospitality industry for many years. Known to most as "Rick", his legacy is that he loved to give, and he did so, often, even when it left him empty handed.

Rick was employed for many years by Riverside Christian Fellowship Church in North Lauderdale Florida. It suited his servants heart. Rick was an honest and righteous man who strived to live a life that would make amends for some poor choices of his past. He forever believed "do what's right and do what's good" and when questioned about why he did so much for so many, for so little, his response was always that his treasures are "stored in heaven" and not on this Earth.

Rick is survived by his sons Jeremiah and Jason Outerbridge, Randie, Ryan and Ramsey Lavigne, and daughter Kathleen Cajamarca (Nicholas); granddaughters Karaleena & Mariana and grandson Lucenzo. Rick was eagerly awaiting the birth of his third granddaughter, expected to Ramsey (Katlyn) in early March. He is also survived by his brothers Franklin, Jerrold(Kate), Warren (Joyce) and Raymond (Karen).

He was predeceased in death by his parents, his, brother Arthur Lavigne and his oldest son Nicholi Brown.

“ Remember that life is about LIVING. Living is about making memories, and making memories is capturing our legacy. You only have one shot at life. Do it right, be honorable and righteous, never having to look over your shoulder for fear of someone "finding out". God sees all things and from him we cannot hide. Live your life, be proud of where you came from in order to appreciate where you are now. Life is short...live each moment to the fullest. Find joy in all that you do, and most importantly...forgive those that do not deserve it. God will bless you immeasurably.

“ Dearest Rick,
20 years as your wife, and 20 years as your "ex" wife. Our high points were high..but those low points were awful! Lol. I can laugh now because you and I spent years overcoming the harsh words, the resentment and the blame and finally learned to forgive each other.. and even became friends. Im thankful for our 4 beautiful, smart and funny children, who all love, protect, and value each other. THEY are what became of "us" and NOTHING can change that. In preparing for the "final goodbye", I reassured myself that there was nothing left unsaid. I was sure that all was forgiven between you and I. I was wrong Rick. There were just a couple words left unspoken; "I'm sorry".
Your up there now, watching over all of your children...protect them from all the evil of this world and allow them to feel your presence... Although our personal journey's took us down different paths, our history will always have a purpose. Your grandchildren and great grandchildren will always hear about you and your servant's heart. And I guess they will also learn how to make that stupid mouse out of a napkin!

Well I don't have words like Kandi has , But I am so happy that I got to spend some time with you Before & After Katie's wedding. You were such a different person than you were 25 years ago, God-bless you so much with with your children. I know your family will cherish December 18th always that they got to spend that all all together with their father. I had such a nice conversation with you and I am so grateful for that. May God-bless you And find my son Michael up there, And keep an eye on him for me please.

I loved Rick. He was funny and intense. I existed in his life during the 1st 20 years that Kandi spoke of. It was an honor to be his brother in law. I saw him be very quick to do for family, little things that always helped. I've missed him for quite some time now. Rest peacefully my brother.

It was my privilege to speak at Rick's memorial service. He meant so much to our family while he was a part of it for 20+ years. I'm glad we were a part of his transition back this way in his last few years, but sorry we didn't get more time to share with him, when I think he really could have used our help more. He will never be forgotten, and no matter what was, we will always be thankful for the beautiful grandchildren, and great grandchildren that came from the union with Kandi, so many years ago. Rest in peace, dear friend....and rest in the Kingdom of the God you loved so much....

Dad! I look back and I'm so thankful for what you have done for me. Thank you for being able to walk me down the aisle to the person I love so much. Thank you for being able to dance with me at my wedding and I would cherish that to every. I love you and please watch over me & my crazy family. Mariana is going to miss you and I will make sure that Lucenzo knows what a hard worker you were and what a good grandfather you were. We love you and may you rest in peace! See you on the other side
