“Duke” was a hard-working, Harley riding, sweet man with the kindest eyes, who always had a great story to share. He will be greatly missed by his Wear Gloves family.

“Gary lived next door to me and was a good friend even though he didn't share much about himself. I only knew him about 2 or 3 years. He previously lived next door to me on the other side of my trailer for a while. I'm the one that did a wellness check on him and found him.
