“ Ken, We can't imagine how much you miss Gayle and having her by your side. We are comforted only by knowing that God promises to be close to the broken hearted. We hope you can feel his presence and comfort in a very real way. We will miss Gayle and her sense of humor, her zest for life and the way she loved her family. She was a remarkable woman - we are better people for having known her and for being blessed to have her in our lives. We are here for you always. We love you!

“Philippians 3:20” Our love and prayers go out to Ken, Ron, Sharon and the boys. Gayle was one God-fearing, classy lady. The love and dedication she had for the River of Life family persevered through the end. I was amazed and inspired by the way she would still... although exhausted... come to church and press on to show her hope in and love for the Lord. We will miss her spunk.
