“ I heard the news on the radio as I drove to town. I drove to the house and found Lisa and learned that it was indeed George who had passed away. I am devastated. George and Lisa became friends when they ran the UPS store. George was constantly raising money for Horse Protection and his enthusiasm was contagious. He was always so positive and upbeat. Tears filled my eyes when I read that George sang to Lisa every day, "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World". I can barely imagine what such love and devotion would be like to receive. I pray that you find comfort and support in your grief Lisa. I am thankful that you have family to help you through this difficult time.

“ My condolences to the McGee families. I'm sorry to hear about the loss of dear George. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:28,29 which states in part: "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up". And the Bible also says "The righteous themselves will inherit the earth, and they will forever reside upon it". Therefore the Bible promises that we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope of everlasting life in a world without wickedness or suffering.
