“ To the Gwyn family,
We are so deeply saddened to hear of Gerry's passing. She was a wonderful woman. She gave my Dad many years of joy, comfort, compassion and companionship and she loved him dearly. Although she was not my birth mother, I was so fortunate to have such a lovely stepmother in my life who filled my heart with what was lost after my own mom passed away....
Our condolences, Virginia Martin-Lieblein and family: Joel, Alex and Amy

“ Dear Geraldine Gwyn family. I am deeply sorry about your loss of Mrs. Gwyn. I appreciated her love of life and family. My prayer is that your family will be comforted through the Holy Scriptures by 'the God of all comfort, who comforts us' (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). Through these verses we see his love of us, but especially in these sad times. So he has promised to end all suffering including sorrow, pain and even death (Revelation 21:4, 1 Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 33:24; 25:8). Since old age and death was not part of his original purpose for mankind, by means of his Kingdom, with Jesus as king we will see many blessings. Included will be the resurrection of our loved ones (John 5:28-29; Acts 15:26). Please read these verses as a family; they will comfort you now and in the days to come. Sincerely Mrs. C. Santana.
