The Family will be having another memorial service for Gerri on Saturday, June 16th at the New Richmond Church of Christ in New Richmond, Ohio at 2:00 PM SAFELY HOME I am home in heaven, dear ones, Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed. I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last. Did you wonder why I calmly Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And he came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will. There is still work waiting for you, so you must not idly stand. Do it now, while life remaineth, you shall rest in God's own land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home. Ah, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!

“ I wanted to light a candle for you mom. Thinking about you, always. Stopped to check your flowers, they still look nice. :) Trying to learn your sewing machine. It's going to take me a while, and I'll never be the seamstress you were, but I feel a sweet connection to you sitting there. :) Think about you all the time. I miss you, but I know you're enjoying being in the presence of God!

“ Mom, I'm altering a flowergirl dress for my cousin's granddaughter. Think of you the whole time I'm sewing. It makes me want to slow down and do the quality of work you always did, not the hurried, impatient work I always preferred to do. I'm slowing down and savoring life, and I'm savoring each memory of you. I love you so much!

“ Mom, Thought of you so much on your birthday. Finally went to your sewing machine last night and went through a few things. Very difficult, but sweet still to touch things I know you've touched. I miss you so much. Keep thinking it will get easier. I know it will. I love you. Hope you're enjoying Heaven! Love ya! Kim

“ Mom, I hope you felt all of the love that was flowing from earth to Heaven in your honor Saturday during your Memorial Service. There are so many on earth that love you and hold you dear in their hearts. We have so many fond and loving memories of you. We look forward to joining you someday. Until then, we'll be content with our memories and the remnants of you we see in each other. We love you so much! Kim “ Thought about you yesterday, as I do most days. I miss being able to talk to you most of all. I saw a fawn following its mamma and thought of how children follow their moms as their growing. It occurred to me that, in God's time and God's grace, we also follow our moms to Heaven too. :) I miss you so much.

Tough times at home and I'm battling. At night, I look for you in my dreams, but you haven't met me there yet. I will wait for you every night so that I can hug and kiss you and tell you how much I will always, always love you. “ I miss Gerri very very much. We haven't seen each other in over 10 years but we talked to each other once a month. I remember when Gerri, Kaye and I were running around together or went swimming in her pool. Gerri looked so cute and tiny in her black and white bathing suit. She also was so good to my Natasha when I was working in the afternoons. They made Barbie doll clothes together and other crafts. Natasha had a wonderful time and I think so did Gerri. We also had a good time playing games with Ron and Kaye, shopping or just walking in the mall. I'll never forget you Gerri, you were a wonderful friend and you'll always be in my prayers.

“ To my dear sweet friend, Kim, and your family: I am truly sorry for your loss. I know you have cried many tears. God keeps all your tears, every one that is shed and makes record of them, your tears of unspeakable love. I know you will miss her so much. I'm so blessed to have a friend in Kim. A true woman of God that loves her Lord. I would guess that a mother that teaches her children of the Lord will get a special crown. Love & Prayers, Paula

“ I remember spending time with your family when I was in elementary school with Melissa. We spent much time together. Gerri always had time to listen to Melissa and me as we would get up in the middle of the living room and sing the songs from Grease over and over again and again. She never got tired of listening. I remember staying at your home, going to Frisch's for Saturday morning breakfast and trips to the Amelia IGA. One particular memory I have is when Gerri chaperoned our class trip to Wright-Patterson Airforce Museum in Dayton, Ohio. Mostly I remember though, if I stayed over on a Saturday night, that I would be going to church on Sunday morning. This is one of the reasons my mom felt comfortable knowing that even though I was not at home, I would be in church somewhere, if I stayed with Melissa. For this, I thank you, Gerri, for setting a good example. For the entire family, I am deeply sorry for your loss. May God wrap His arms around you and comfort you during your time of loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sheila “ Gerri; My Wife and Very Best Friend Loved; • The Lord Jesus and the beautiful things that God created in her world, • Her Husband, Children, Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, and the rest of her Family, • Home making and was very gifted and talented in making her home a warm, welcome, and friendly place for all Family and Friends, • Giving to and doing charity work for the church and the needy, • Doing arts, crafts, quilting, embroidery and sharing her works and talents with Family and Friends, • Reading her Bible and other religious books and related materials, • Playing bingo and many other games with Family and Friends, • Talking, reminiscing, and sharing memories/experiences with Family and Friends, • Traveling, and going on site-seeing trips wherever we traveled, • Dinning out with myself, friends and family, • Antique shopping with myself, friends and family. Gerri was a very special person to all who knew her. She was a loving and caring person. She was a talented and gifted person. She was loved and will truly be missed by those who knew her especially myself. I am deeply saddened by the loss of Gerri. We shared so many good times together. I loved her immensely!!!. She was my soul mate !!!.. Gerri wanted to begin her walk and everlasting life with the Lord Jesus in a new body without any pain or suffering. She was definitely ready and knowing this has brought me great comfort and peace.

“ My dear sweet Mom. Over the years, you were not only my Mom, but my caregiver, my nurse, my cheerleader, my guide, my psychiatrist, my therapist, my adviser, the one who would discipline and last, but certainly not least, you became my best friend. I have so, so many fond memories of growing up, but especially of when you became my best friend. Friday nights at Frisch for a Big Boy when we were on our own because that is what you could afford, the beach, Connecticut, Cape Cod, living with you and Dad in Toledo and when Kim came up and we could have a girls' night watching movies (the first time we watched Dirty Dancing), I could go on and on. I will hold you in my heart forever and I know you will watch over all of us. I'm so happy for you because now you get to be with Jesus on his birthday, but it's so hard to be here without you. Please help me grieve so I can do what you wanted me to do. I will look for you in my dreams until I get to see you again. I love you with all my heart. xoxoxo Melissa

“ Mom, Are you smiling down at me right now from the comfort of your new body, as I struggle not to cry the tears you really don't want me to cry? You know me, I'm going to cry them anyway, just like everyone else who is missing you right now. I'm so thankful that you're not in pain any longer. I'm so thankful that you are my mom and my friend. We have been through so much in our lifetime together, so many fond memories for the whole family that we're so grateful for and will always cherish. You were always such an unselfish person, our love was all you ever really wanted. Piece 'o cake, piece 'o pie. (grin) You were easy to love! Speaking of pie, you made the best custard pie on this earth!!! Let's not forget your miracle custard pie. Remember the pie that one Thanksgiving when somehow the crust somehow rose to the top and the custard sank to the bottom? Now that I'm 51, I understand the logistics of it all, but as a kid, it was truly a miraculous feat for my mom, the world's best pie maker. LOL We're all going to miss you mom until that day when we meet you in heaven. Until then, we'll see you in our children and grandchildren. We'll remember you in a song, during movies, in books, and in silence. Our prayers will include you and we'll speak of you daily and think of often. You will be in our hearts forever.
