“ Winsome and family, Our thoughts are with your family. May Jehovah God give you the strength to get through this difficult and sad time with the knowledge that Barry is resting peacefully. John 5:28,29 gives us hope: "...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." We look forward to that with you.

“ When I think back of Barry I think of a man who showed such strength and confidence. He was very much a family man and just loved his wife Winnie. I remember as a young woman I always saw Barry and Winnie as the model family and wanted my relationship with my husband and family to be like them when I got married. He was always so protective of Winnie and a really hard worker who made sure his family was taken care of. My condolence to Winnie, Lluma, Heather, Beshen, and Donnie. May you be comforted in the fact that you will see him again and cherish the great legacy he left behind. May the God of all comfort place His arms around you all at this time. Jennifer Eccles

“ Hey Dad, it's very difficult to see you go but at least i know the pain is over...we've had some great times together and we've had fantastic times together. I'm honored to be called your son and now I have the opportunity of imparting what you have taught me to my son. You've taught me soooo much words can't explain. I pray i'll be half the man you were, you've left a pretty high standard to follow. Love you dad, miss you.

“ As Gladstone's youngest son my Dad was an awesome role model & the epitome of what a father should be. He took the time to instill relevant & effective life lesson in me not only with his words but also with his actions. He always knew how to make us laugh. It will take some time to finally come to the reality of what has transpired, but I know now that my father will be greatly missed, he really was an awesome dad. Miss you dad, Love Beshen M. Brown

“ On behalf of the entire Spencer Family (Tony, Dalton, Judith, Joseph, Jordan and Joann) we would like to express our sincere condolences. We are so delighted to have been a part of and involved in his new birth and his christian walk. We were privileged to enjoy his friendship and as part of the Men's and Marriage Enrichment Groups, we developed a bond that was extremely special. Bro. Brown was a man of strong convictions and took seriously any commitments he made. Sis. Brown despite the pain, I know you are comforted knowing he is with his Lord and Savior. We continue to pray your and your family strength at this time and afterwards.
