

Glenn G. May

June 6, 1941 - December 31, 2021

Glenn May, 80, loving husband and father, passed away unexpectedly Friday, December 31, 2021 in Ocala, Florida.

Glenn was born on June 6, 1941 in Garrett, Kentucky to Grant and Pearlle May. He grew up in Lucasville, Ohio where worked at the local drive-in theater. When he was 18, he went to Lorain, Ohio, and found a job at the Ford Assembly Plant, working there until he retired in 1994.

Glenn enjoyed going to car shows, flea markets, and tinkering with various projects. He loved making others laugh with his funny stories, comments, or occasional antics. He was a fan of country and bluegrass music, often singing songs he knew as well as some he made up. Glenn also loved to collect antiques, Coke paraphernalia, and anything Roy Rogers related. He enjoyed trap shooting and won a number of trophies. He was known to hunt, ride a motorcycle, scuba dive, play guitar and banjo, and he loved driving fast cars. He was a true patriot, displaying American flags and eagles wherever possible.

He enjoyed reading "Reminisce" and had a story published.

He was an exceptional friend to many and some knew him as 'Colonel' or 'Fuzzy Face'.

Glenn was preceded in death by his father and mother, and brothers, Luther, Okla, and Eugene. He is survived by his wife, Patricia, daughter, Tammy (Randy) Knull, son, Sean (Suzanne) May, sister Darlene Fields, brother, Doug May, several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

No funeral services are scheduled but a celebration of his life will be held at a later date.
