“ My mother was one of a kind. She was caring, thoughtful, and fun to be with. She played kick the can with the neighborhood kids when I was small, had me chasing water moccasins thinking they were fish, and got lost on a five minute walk. The best way to remember her is the number of friends who came to see her before she became ill and while she was in the hospital. The world will be a sadder place without her.

“ God saw that she was getting tired, A cure was not to be. So He put His arms around her and whispered, "Come with Me." With tearful eyes, we watched her suffer, And saw her fade away. Although we loved her dearly, We could not make her stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes "the best".
