“ Tara and family, I'm sorry to hear about your mother's passing. Losing a parent is hard, especially your mother. May you gain comfort and strength from the Scriptures. John 5:28,29 shows that Jesus will resurrect the dead again in the future. I hope you find that comforting. My deep sympathies to your family.

“ I was so surprised to receive the news today of Gloria's passing. I will never forget the love, laughter and support that we shared while I was Church Secretary. She was a wonderful woman and shared herself so easily with others. She always made you feel as if she'd known you forever and always made you feel at ease. She had such wonderful stories to share. Many will miss her spiritual gifts. Monty, you and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Rest in peace Gloria in the arms of our Lord. Joan

ME

“ I am very sorry to hear of the loss of Mrs. Eason. I'm sure, she has helped so many children & families that needed someone to help and care for them, over the years. I image she was an amazing woman. I won't pretend to know what you're going through, but what has helped me deal with the loss of those I love is turning to the Scriptures, something that has been a real source of comfort. One Scripture that gives me hope is Isaiah 26:19, which says, "Your dead will live... Awake and shout joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." I hope that this verse will also comfort you; and I hope you and your family can get through this difficult time. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your beloved wife, mother. Sincerely, Meryl.
