“ I just wanted to extend my heartfelt sympathies during this very sad time. I am Ruth Graves' granddaughter and always remember Gram speaking of Grace and Keith over the years and about all of the wonderful things they had done throughout their lives. I have the very distinct honor to work with senior citizens and I know the ravages of this terrible disease. I am so glad that Grace was a woman of faith, because I know for sure that she is now in a much better place, where no disease can ever touch or affect her again. I know that we will all look forward to that day when we can meet up with her once again. Much love and God bless you all, Tami and Gram(Ruth Graves)

“ Unfortunately, I never knew the real Grace. I only came into her life at the end. I have found out that she was one of the most loved people of all times. Her family adored her. When all is said and done, if you have the love of the Lord and your family, and friends, what more could you ask for. Grace be to God and With God, forever.
